The Marshal remains at her station to supervise the retiring march. The W. M., W. P., A. M., and Warden approach after some time, taking positions as per diagram. The W. M. and W. P. facing altar, A. M. and Warden facing East.

As the W. M. and W. P. leave their stations, the A. C. and C. take position between Altar and East, facing each other. (See diagram.)

As the C. and A. C. leave their stations, Adah and Eletha march in front of their chairs, leaving the labyrinth as per diagram, as they march around their stations, Ruth and Esther step in line. Esther following Ruth.

As Adah and Eletha approach altar the W. M. and W. P. face and march towards East, followed by lines as they approach C. and A. C. face East and lead the lines, marching East, their right hands left the Sce., Chap., and Stirs, stepping in place as the lines pass their respective stations. Note: the W. M., W. P., A. M., Warden, A. C., Adah, and Eletha all move at the same time in beginning of march, each taking their respective positions.
The complete lines approach Alter, then circle the stations as per diagram, meeting at Espher station, marching West, then right and left, forming straight line in front of A.M.'s station.

As straight line is formed, at signal, all face East signal, bow signal, lines face right and left and march out.

As lines approach exit the C. and A.C. step aside the W.M. and W.F. leading the line out of the room, the C. and A.C. leaving the room last.

The C. and A.C. may collect the badges as the officers pass out. This is optional with the Chapter.