

MEMORIALS

The Hands of Memory

A beautiful life has gone from us to find happiness, peace and rest,
But there is comfort in the thought that a loving God knows best--
For in God's plan are many things man cannot understand,
And we must trust God's judgment and be guided by His Hand.

In Memoriam

In the Garden of Remembrance
There's a little sheltered spot,
Fragrant with the bloom of beauty
Of the sweet Forget-Me-Not.
No other flowers in the garden
Fairer, brighter ever grew,
Than the little flower that whispers,
Always we'll remember you.

Memorial

They have whispered their last farewell
And passed on to the Chapter above
And there 'neath the smile of the Master
Will continue their labor of love.

In memory of _____
Into the Star strewn night
A loving soul has flown.
Quietly it took its flight unhampered and alone.
(Terry Chapter #74, Montana)

In Memoriam

We walk life's pathway together with those, who for many a day,
Have been our close friends and leaders, along the Onward Way.
Then comes the clear call to service
In a higher and better shrine.
And we miss these faithful comrades
Whose friendship we hold so dear,
And yet we feel their sweet presence,
As we travel along the Road,
Which some day will bring us to them
In the paradise of God.

In Memorium

They have whispered their last farewell,
Passed on to the Master above,
And there 'neath the smile of the Savior,
They will finish their labor of love.
