Short ceremony used near St. Patrick's Day with song, "My Wild Irish Rose."

Honored person is presented back of Altar or Esther's Chair as the case may be. The song may be sung by a quartet of all men or mixed foursome group. Following the song the honored person escorted to the East. The gift may be decorated with a red rose kept fresh with stem inserted in tube of water.

Wording used with gift:

Red is a color of fervency
The rose its symbol, too,
With pleasure and sincerity
We give this gift to you.

Used Newton Chapter, No. 100
March 5, 1955