PRESENTATION

The dinner and program were a complete surprise to Sister Ogden. The Past Matrons and Past Patrons led the march to the dining Room. At Sister Ogden's place was a beautifully decorated cake, made by Sister Myrtle Funk, a Past Matron, who gave Sister Ogden the appointive office of Esther. The year of her office and name were artistically iced in the colors of pink and green. Sister Harriett Hess, a Past Matron, arranged the words to the following song, which Sister Elenoca Nagle sang to the tune of "Where the River Shannon Flows":

"There's a colleen, fair and smiling,
Our very hearts beguiling,
And she comes to us this evening
As a friend both sweet and wise,
And the moment that you meet her,
With a cheery handclasp greet her,
And let her read a welcome
By the friendship in your eyes.

CHORUS

"Where the Eastern Star is shining,
With its rays so pure and sweet,
A brilliant path designing,
She has led our willing feet.
So tonight we're glad to meet her,
With a hearty welcome greet her;
For there's not a colleen sweeter
