

Prayer

Give me a year, that I can serve each day,
Interpreting our loving Master's way;
I would be tireless, earnest, easing care...
With all my joys and happiness to share.
I pray that I may serve, weeks without end -
That I may know, and truly be, a friend.
Give me clear vision, that I see each day
A sacred pattern that can be MY way;
Make my heart humble, that I'll always feel
A kinship to each one who makes appeal
For help in time of stress, - whose troubled heart
Asks comfort. That will be my part.
