To be put on under Good of the Order

W. Matron: "Sister Conductress, you will present the present sisters of our floral center back of Esther's chair."

When they are back of Esther's chair, the W.M. speaks.

W. Matron: "We are happy to have you especially present this evening to honor you for the beautiful, faithful work you have accomplished this year to enable us to carry on the work of our beautiful Order of the Eastern Star. Adah, Ruth, Esther, Martha and Electa, sisters of our floral center, your work has been most helpful in beautifying the work of the Order and as a token of appreciation, I personally wish to present you with a small gift."

When W.M. is back at her station, she calls up Chapter and all members sing the following song to the tune of "Augustine"

We'll sing to our Star Points, our Star Points, our Star Points
We'll sing to our Star Points for they are some gals.
With love and devotion as deep as the ocean
We'll sing to our Star Points for they are some gals."

Star Points are then seated.
W. Matron sounds gavel

Marshal lights the blue candle at Adah's station and says, "The blue light of fidelity ever reminds us that you were faithful to your trust."

Conductress lights yellow candle at Ruth's station and says, "The yellow light of constancy is a token of your patience and industry of your station humble or high."

Asso. Matron lights white candle at Esther's station and says, "The white light burns ever brighter for the way your pure and upright life brings light and joy wherever you are."

Chaplain lights green candle at Martha's station and says, "The green light of faith reminds us that your trust and hope have been as a prayer through this year."

Treasurer lights the red candle at Electa's station and says, "The red light of love reflects the love that has blossomed in your faithful service, and it finds an echo in every heart."

Those lighting candles at stations stay near the stations until Matron seats chapter.
Solist sings the following song to tune "Sweet Genevieve."

"Oh, Eastern Star, thy golden light shines ever on so clear and bright;
Through virtues taught us by the Star—it shed its beams of love afar
Through Adah's great fidelity and Ruth's unwavering constancy
With loyal Ester, Martha's faith, Electa's love, e'en unto death
CHORUS:
Oh, Eastern Star, bright Eastern Star
The days may come, the days may go
Oh, may thy light forever shine
And through the years much brighter grow."
